VISITOR & INFORMATION CENTER: We are happy to report that fireproof file cabinets have been purchased for the safe keeping of burial records. This start-up expense was made possible in January by generous donations from Joseph Yasik (Chandler), Matthew Smith (Spicer-Mullikin), and Richard Harra (McCrery & Harra). We still need funds for window blinds, bookshelves, display cases, desk, and electronic equipment (computer, printer, projector & screen. We invite others to make a donation in February. All donations are tax-deductible.

TREES: Six large trees at Riverview Cemetery are vulnerable to Emerald Ash Borer. The treatment needs to be applied every 2 years. The first treatment was in 2016. It is time for the second treatment. Help us save the Riverview trees. The cost is $1883. A donor has pledged $1000. Please mail your donation to FHRC P.O Box 2173 Wilmington DE 19899.
