MAKING CONNECTIONS - A SMALL WORLD VETERAN STORY!

EDWIN EDWARD JOCHEN CIVIL WAR ID DISC RECOVERED IN 2020

Early this Spring, using Riverview Cemetery's website information, a gentleman from the West Coast contacted FHRC because he had acquired a number of coins from an eBay seller in 2019. Included in the coins was a Civil War ID Disc belonging to Sargent E. E. Jochen. He thought perhaps we might know how to get in touch with relatives because he discovered the Civil War Veteran was buried at Riverview Cemetery. It just so happened that he was the Great-Great Grandfather of Ed Jochen, a FHRC member/volunteer. We were very excited to connect east coast to west coast!

WHAT ARE ID DISCS?

Civil War Dog Tags:

These are also called ID discs. They were not issued by the government but were sold to soldiers by itinerant civilian merchants, or so-called sur-tlers, who followed the armies and set up shop out of their wagons, or in structures built near camps. The dog tags were usually made of gilt brass with various motifs on the front and reverse sides. Most common of these was an eagle (based on the eagle on the $10 gold piece) with the words "War of 1861". Among popular motifs were a bust of Lincoln and a shield with the words "Against Rebellion, 1861". Another showed a bust of Major General George B. McClellan. He was a popular figure with his men (in the Army of the Potomac) because he was seen as cautious – not unnecessarily risking the lives of his men. The reverse side had the soldier's name, rank, company and state regiment punched into the disc. It would almost always include the name of the soldier's hometown and state. Sometimes Battles were included if there was enough space. A hole was punched in the dog tag so it could be worn with a string around the neck. ID discs might also be suspended from a pin with a ring through the hole and worn on the coat. (Google "Identification Discs for Union Soldiers in the Civil War" for a detailed guide to these ID Discs.)

Sergt. E.E. Jochen's dog tag features the McClellan motif on the front. On the reverse is punched: SERGT. E.E. JOCHEN CO.H 2d. DEL. V. FREDSB'G ANTI TAM MALV. HILL, GAINS MILL.

WHO WAS SERGT. E.E. JOCHEN?

Edwin Edward Jochen was born on July 18, 1838, in Germany. He emigrated to the U.S. from Liverpool aboard the ship "POMONA", and arrived in NYC on November 13, 1857. He married Mary Elizabeth Grimmel from Hessen Germany. They had seven children. Edwin died on January 1, 1892. Mary died on December 21, 1918. They are buried in Riverview Cemetery in Wilmington, Delaware.

The mission of Friends of Historic Riverview Cemetery is to operate and maintain Wilmington's most culturally diverse, non-profit, public cemetery, and to support its restoration and preservation.

PROJECTS of NOTE

GROUNDHOGS ARE PROBLEMATIC IN A CEMETERY! We appreciate the good service of Vance Wildlife Service who captured 8 groundhogs this fall. In addition to filling holes with dirt throughout the cemetery, damage done by groundhogs and foxes who look for warm hibernation spots around the large steps in front of the Community Mausoleum was addressed. Thanks to a team lead by Julie Zorach, her Dad, Ransom Jenks, and supported by Mary King and Ken Valan, a plan was devised to excavate deeply around steps, build forms, fill with concrete and backfill to prevent further digging.

THE POWER OF VOLUNTEER ENERGY!

- In October, FHRC welcomed volunteers needing community service hours. Our first project was to remove trash inside and outside the cemetery. Riverview's 42 acres is surrounded by 8 roads and a lot of pedestrian traffic.
- Our second project was clearing the Todd's Lane fence lines of vines, removing trash along Market St. and Eastlawn Ave., and weeding the Section J circular baby garden. Little things matter; it takes many hands to succeed.

Davey Tree Company has begun removal of storm-damaged trees. Thank you!

Chandler Funeral Homes & Crematory continues to donate flags for our flag poles. Many are damaged by storms and high winds. Thank you!

Make a Connection!

Tell us about your connection(s) to Riverview Cemetery. Subsequent newsletters will have a column to include your information.

Let's continue the Oral History project that resulted in the publication of Riverview Cemetery: Reading the Stones - A Collection of Memories from the First State.
